[Key Highlights of TOHO Group Integrated Report 2026]

1. Special Feature on Proprietary IP "Godzilla"

To depict the current status and future outlook of the IP & Anime Business, which is leaping forward as the company's fourth core pillar, the report includes its first-ever special feature on the multifaceted global expansion of "Godzilla". In addition, using the new film Godzilla-0.0 (slated for release in November) as a theme, the feature incorporates authentic voices from on-site staff to uncover the source of the company's content creation capabilities, one of its core strengths.

2. Structure and Design Focused on Human Passion

The report highlights how staff across various business units collaborate to create emotionally resonant moments, featuring producer dialogues from the newly independent "IP & Anime Business" segment and marketing cross-collaboration for film releases. The layout conveys the passion of the people supporting entertainment at its foundation, creating a publication that reflects the unique character of the TOHO Group.

3. Enhanced Executive Management Messages

In addition to top management, the report introduces strategic messages from the executive team, including the Representative Director, Executive Vice President and CFO, as well as the newly appointed CIO/CISO. Furthermore, it provides deeper and clearer insights into management's vision through stories of "Moments for Life" that empowered the Board of Directors, as well as a round-table discussion between the President and Outside Directors.

The TOHO Group will continue to enhance information disclosure through this report and other means, striving to sustainably increase corporate value and realize an enriched society through entertainment by deepening constructive dialogue with all stakeholders.
